“My first impression of Alex made me instantly want him to lead my marketing team. His attention to detail and vision instantly captivated me. The Leadership provided by Alex spawned some really great and unique ideas for our web and stationary projects. He would consistently innovate our designs without losing focus on both the customers' branding and our values. The strategic proposals and evaluations for our service pricing were esteemed. His forward thinking and out of the box approach proved to be what the company needed. I highly recommend Alex Duran, his roll as the Marketing Manager at Luminous Hilt, LLC was unmeasurable and he will be an Excellent fit on any team for any corporation.”
